

Application Processing

Pull an applicant's credit data from multiple external sources in seconds and deliver information in a concise, easy-to-read format.

FORM COLLECTION: Utilize a web portal to easily collect necessary data to start a customer opportunity. This sets you up for a myriad of business process efficiencies by creating a historical and consistent record and file for each opportunity while reducing paperwork.

AUTOMATED CREDIT INQUIRIES: To qualify your applicant, Liventus can help you automate the real-time pull of important credit information.

BANK STATEMENT AUTOMATION: Pull third party verified bank statements from sources such as Decision Logic during the credit process and avoid fraud and/or losing customers because excessive customer related document requests and extended approval times.

TAX RETURN AUTOMATION: Pull tax return directly from the IRS, thereby avoiding the recent increase of fraudulent tax returns while also shortening the credit approval process and work for your customers.

DISCUSSION BOARD: Wouldn't it be great if sales, credit, funding, collections and asset management could all effectively collaborate on each new deal? Discussion boards can track many different types of activities including emails, notes, phone calls, documents, collector comments, approvals, automated notifications and more.

COMMISSION AUTOMATION: Salespeople love to track and see their commissions, but tracking and managing commissions on deals can put a burden on your accounting team. In real-time, let the salespeople calculate and see their commission as they change any detail in a term set while negotiating with the customer.

ASSET ANALYSIS AND REPORTING: Look up equipment comparable data by connecting automatically with 3rd parties.
